"Gibraltar of Pacific" to Be Made One of the Strongest Naval Bases in the World.

in the World.

The first rough draft of the naval bill for 1913-14, without recommendations as to the building programme, will be submitted to the full naval committee by a subcommittee to-day. At that time the full committee to the full naval committee full committee to the submittee full committee to the submittee full committee will pass upon the general cuttine of the measure and may class and the total to the full committee will pass upon the general cuttine of the measure and may class and the submittee will be instructed but the fundamental the submittee will be instructed. The many trans. now under construction. The many trans. now under construction to make easy a withdrawal from the Philippines in the near fature may be taken as indicated in the treatment of Manila fortifications in the bill. In its present state the bill makes almost no provision for upkeep of the present for the present state the bill makes almost no prevision for upkeep of the present for the present for the great naval base at Pearl Harbor, Hawall, which appropriation will come close to providing for the completion of the work there, work which is intended to transform this permanent naval base into the Gibraltar of the Pacific and be the last word by way of preparation against any future for Pearl Harbor is expected to complete the new marine burracks, with accommodation for a permanent assignment of 1,000 men there; finish the large dry dock now under process of construction: bring a long step usarer completion the hand fortifications upen which the impregnability of the naval base depends very largety; finish the construction and equipment of extensive machine shops, and put the finishing touches on the long plers and docks.

With the missey provided for this year, Unice Sam will have expended about 11.000 men to carry the pended about 11.000 men

ILLOW 00 in the fortification of this naval base.

In view of the general feeling that the Democrats are going to carry through their campalan pledge to free the Philippines, this final condumnation of the Fuelfic havail base scheme, are red years before it was psected, and be looked upon as a precautionary step. Manita still will retain her fortifications, but no further swels will be put on them and by the time the work is done at Fearl Harbor, the econe of the Dawey battle will have little of the appearance of a naval base. If Japan steps in the state the historiand, we will be at little greater disadvantage than she, For our Fearl Harbor naval base, equipped for the construction of battlessing it necessary, will place out Pacific fleet within almost as quick striking distance as the nillitary forces of the Mikade.
